standards based learning just got a lot easier in this resource the authors provide indexes for all states implementing state specific ela standards this index allows you to see and understand which page number to turn to for standards based teaching ideas beyond that it's the same great go to guide for implementing the standards translating each and every standard for reading writing speaking and listening language and foundational skills into day to day what you do lesson ideas best literacy practices group configurations adaptations for ells and more it's all here page by page the standards for literature and informational texts put side by side for easier planning more than a dozen teaching ideas for each standard recommendations on how to cultivate the habits of mind that are critical to meeting the standards including interpersonal skills collaboration and perseverance a glossary of academic language for each standard teaching suggestions for how to support elas developmental debriefs to signal how you may need to adapt expectations to meet students where they're at an online bank of graphic organizers student reproducibles sample classroom charts and rubrics reproducible planning template for each standard to help you map out lessons select books generate key questions and more with this book you have what you need to bring about astounding clarity of expectations for what students are to learn and what teachers can do to bring about the sustained literacy experiences students need to apply their learning educational reforms and standards have been a topic of public debate for decades with the latest go round being the state common core curriculum standards but time and again those reforms have failed and each set of standards no matter how new and different has had little impact on improving student achievement why the textbooks textbooks sell based on design and superficial features not because they are based on the latest research on how children learn and how well they promote student achievement in tyranny of the textbook beverlee jobrack retired from educational publishing sheds light on why this happens she gives an engaging and fascinating look behind the scenes of how k 12 textbooks are developed written adopted and sold and perhaps most importantly she clearly spells out how the system can change so that reforms and standards have a shot at finally being effective did you know reform efforts have focused on writing and rewriting standards and tests but these rarely have any effect on the core curriculum that is published school districts and states don't use effectiveness as a criterion for evaluating and purchasing textbooks publishers don't offer textbooks with better content or the latest teaching methods because teachers don't want textbooks that require them to change their practices teachers report that they don't rely on a textbook in their class but research shows that they do three companies publish 75 percent of the k 12 educational materials those three companies are producing similar programs with the same instructional strategies none of which require teachers to change their practices significantly publishers write textbooks for california and texas all of the other markets have to make do with books only superficially adjusted for their states
